

MILLIONS FOR NAVAL PREPAREDNESS FAVORED

Declaration Of War May Be Berlin Reply To Wilson

HOUSE ADOPTS MEASURE

BULLETIN
Washington, Feb. 6.—The house this afternoon under stress of national emergency almost unanimously adopted Chairman Padgett's naval committee report, which appropriates additional millions of dollars for naval preparedness. The house acted in committee of the whole. This assures passage of the items. Included in the appropriations are $1,250,000 for machine guns; $1,000,000 for anti-aircraft guns and ammunition at arsenals; $5,581,174 for batteries for merchant auxiliaries, with $7,281,941 for ammunition for the latter.

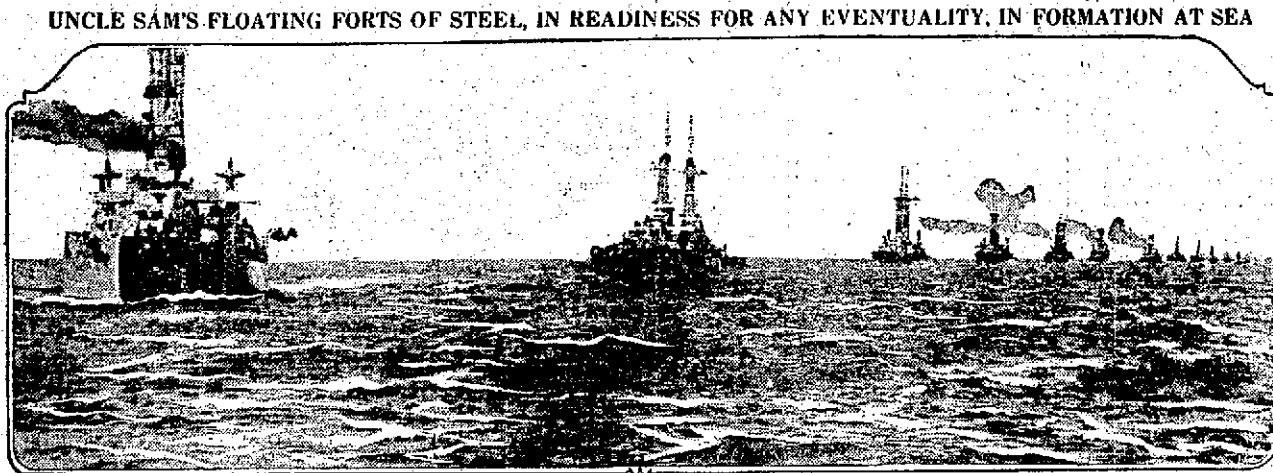

Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—The most far-reaching preparedness legislation ever introduced at one time in both branches of congress was favorably reported to the house today by Chairman Padgett of the naval committee. The measure authorized the president to commandeer all ship building plants, all plants capable of producing war materials, places at the president's disposal $150,000,000 to rush completion of ships or needed war materials, and appropriates $1,000,000 to purchase the basic patent of an aeroplane suitable for army and navy use.

Pledges Support To Wilson
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 6.—The Illinois legislature in joint session today adopted a resolution pledging its support to President Wilson. Governor F. O. Lowden, Republican, sent a message to the legislature urging the action taken.

Administration In Doubt About Results Of Killing Of An American Negro

Washington, Feb. 6.—The administration this afternoon still was frankly in doubt as to the probable results of the killing of the American negro, Richard Wallace, when a German submarine shelled the life boats of the sunken British provisional collier Evestone.
"Better wait awhile," was the advice given at the state department to newspaper correspondents.
The fact that the American negro killed was employed on a provisional collier made him virtually a member of Great Britain's armed forces. Also the vessel was apparently of the status of a warship, subject to unwarned attack.
Nothing in international law, however, excuses the shelling of a life boat. There is a difference, however, in wanton killing of an American engaged in peaceful pursuits and killing of an American engaged on such a mission as was Wallace, which could hardly be termed peaceful. Further investigation will be necessary.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Confirmation of the killing of Richard Wallace, negro seaman, reached the state department today in a cablegram from Consul Frost at Queenstown.
The message showed Wallace was killed in the shelling of the Jap Situation Is Serious, Hints Poindexter In Speech

Washington, Feb. 6.—"I think unfounded hysteria in the matter. I am very much in hope that there are other international relations that are more ominous and there will not be a material commotion imminent than those with Germany," Senator Poindexter declared in the senate this afternoon, referring by inference to Japan.
In the course of a speech opposing promotion of Dr. Grayson to be a rear admiral, Poindexter said:
"The country is more or less aroused by strained relations with Germany. I, myself, think we have been subject to more or less unfounded hysteria in the matter. I think, in the last few days of a disposition on the part of Germany to avoid such a conflict and I am sure there is in the breast of the American people the desire that no incident of sufficient cause shall arise for plunging this country into war with Germany."

U-45 Stops American Ship, Demands Oil

London, Feb. 6.—The German submarine U-45, stopped the American steamer Westwego and only permitted her to proceed without sinking when that vessel acceded to the German commander's demands for three barrels of lubricating oil.
The American consul at Liverpool reported these circumstances to the American embassy here today.
The Westwego left Philadelphia on January 31 and was carrying a cargo of oil.
The Westwego is a steel steamer of 5,275 tons, registered at Philadelphia and owned by the Union Petroleum Steamship Company. She was built in 1914.
An admiralty statement concerning the same incident declared that the U-45 fired five shells at the Westwego but failed to score a hit.
CREW SAVED
Halifax, N. S., Feb. 6.—The crew of the Imperial Oil Company's steamer Rellow, which was wrecked off Egg Island, has been saved.

BRAZIL TO PROTEST U-BOAT POLICY

Rio De Janeiro, Feb. 6.—The Brazilian government announced today that a protest will be made against Germany's unrestricted submarine warfare, following an hour's cabinet meeting called by President Braz. It was expressly stated, however, that every effort will be made to avoid actual conflict with Germany. The minister of marine issued an order suspending all Brazilian navigation.

"Newsies" Not Allowed To Cry Headlines

AMERICANS HAVE INALIENABLE RIGHT TO SEND SHIPS FORTH IF THEY CHOOSE

Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—The state department was slated today to inform the American line again as to its position on sailing of United States ships. As the matter stands now, the government, has several times said that it would not give "advice" though unofficially it deemed it unwise for the ships to put out of port.
Today's decision may set a standard of procedure; and at any rate, it will be made clear that this government holds the U-boat blockade illegal unless air-tight and that Americans have an inalienable right to send their ships forth if they choose in the circumstances.

Americans Advised To Leave Germany

Washington, Feb. 6.—All Americans have been advised to leave Germany. It was learned today instructions forwarded to Ambassador Gerard and American consuls Saturday were to give them this advice and assist them in leaving wherever possible.

New London, Conn., Feb. 6.—Rumors here early today. The boat was stopping here tuning up and taking on supplies. Officials claim to know of the command added to the long list of submarines.

Spanish Government Fails To Follow U. S. Executive's Action

SPAIN PROTESTS AGAINST U-BOAT POLICY
Madrid, February 6.—Spain made formal protest to Germany against the unlimited submarine campaign inaugurated February 1 in a note handed to the German ambassador here today. Action in sending a note of protest precludes an immediate break of relations between Spain and Germany. It is stated, however, that the note declines to suspend Spanish shipping, so that danger of an overt act by Germany will continually be present.

SWISS WILL DECLINE TO BREAK, CLAIMED

London, Feb. 6.—Wireless dispatches from Bern today declared that Switzerland, in a note to the United States, will decline to break relations with Germany as suggested by President Wilson as the proper course of all neutrals.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Germany's answer to President Wilson's notice of a diplomatic break is expected within 24 hours. It may be a declaration of war.

Belief is rapidly crystallizing among officials that this final step is inevitable and it would cause no surprise if Germany took it now. This belief was strengthened by receipt of Berlin press dispatches quoting Foreign Minister Zimmerman as saying "there is no step backward" contemplated following President Wilson's action.

Also it was recalled today that last spring when the Sussex sinking threatened a diplomatic break, Ambassador Von Bernstorff said such a break would result in an immediate declaration of war by Germany.

At the same time President Wilson told members of the foreign relations committee that he had been "reliably informed" actual war would follow a break.

Von Bernstorff recently reiterated his former statement. Possible action of this kind by Germany took precedence in the discussion of officials today, even over the London admiralty statement reporting the killing of an American citizen by a German submarine gun. According to the admiralty report, Richard Wallace, of Baltimore, was killed by U-boat shell fire while leaving the British steamer Evestone in a small boat.

The report immediately made the international situation more acute, pending investigation.

Should Germany make the war decision some officials believe she will base her declaration on President Wilson's active efforts to align neutral governments in a break.

Some officials, however, in spite of the German declarations to the contrary believe she may modify her U-boat campaign before a greater crash results.

While awaiting the step which may mean war, the president is determined that this government shall make no move not fully and literally justified by the laws of nations and humanity; that nothing shall be done for mere expediency that might merit a re-

Billy Battly Times Weather Man

I read the other day of an applicant for a police job, who, when asked what he'd do if told to disperse a mob, replied that he'd pass around the hat. I claim that man had genius fittin' him for somethin' better than patrolin' a beat. He's even diplomatic enough for a successful weather man and if he lived in these parts I'd be lookin' out for my job and honorary membership in the Hammer Club that goes with it. Here's for tomorrow:
Ohio—Cloudy and warmer tonight; probably snow flurries; Wednesday snow in north and snow or rain in south portion; warmer.
West Virginia—Cloudy and warmer tonight and Wednesday. Probably snow or rain Wednesday.
Kentucky—Increasing cloudiness followed by rain or snow late today or Wednesday. Warmer tonight.

"MISS GEORGE WASHINGTON,"—THURSDAY

REVIVALS

U. B. CHURCH

"Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."—John 3:3.

At the conclusion of a sermon on this text the spirit of God was wonderfully manifested in a testimony meeting. Nine persons asked an interest in the prayers of the members of the church after they had heard strong, able-bodied men weep when they tried to tell of their salvation years ago.

Don't forget the hours set aside for prayer between two and five o'clock in the afternoon.

"The subject of regeneration lies at the very basis of the Bible. It is the groundwork of our hope of Heaven."

There are many people who fancy they have been born again, who are not. Understand that living in a Christian land and bearing the name of a Christian does not say we have been born again. You may take the name, dress and language of a Christian, follow the forms and ceremonies of the church, even get up and profess Christ and still be outside of the pale of grace. You must be born again. I would not change that, if I could, for the mightiest congregation that ever sat at the feet of a minister.

"Some people say that we are regenerated when we are baptized, but my belief is that you might put a man at the headwaters of the Mississippi and drag him to the Gulf of Mexico, and the only difference in him would be that he would come up a wet devil instead of a dry one."

"The kingdom of God means two things. The kingdom of God on earth means being a member of the mystical church; it does not matter to what denomination you belong. It means to have power in prayer and to have communion with Christ. In a higher sense it means being admitted to Heaven when this old world passes away. The angels themselves would not admit us to Heaven if we were not born of the Spirit, because they would not want to see sin enter into that Paradise of God. Are you guessing at your regeneration tonight? Have you a kind of 'I hope so regeneration'?"

COUNTY NEWS

Monday afternoon's sessions of the Scioto County Extension School at Wheelersburg were better attended than the opening session in the morning. The weather is keeping down the attendance. There is an average attendance of 35 men at the agricultural course and about 20 women at the home economics course. The men and women are displaying great interest in the work of the lecturers and instructors. Miss Mary Graber, instructor in the home economics department, is unable to come and in her place is Miss Maud Okey.

From 1 o'clock until 2 o'clock Monday afternoon M. A. Bachtell gave a very instructive talk on "The Nitrogen Problem." He told of the importance of nitrogen in the soil and how clover should be grown to get the natural nitrogen instead of getting it in the commercial form. Mr. Bachtell also emphasized the importance of using lime and phosphoric acid in growing clover. Following Mr. Bachtell's instruction L. P. Bailey gave a helpful talk on "Marketing Dairy Products." In his talk Mr. Bailey made an appeal for more co-operation among the farmers. He urged them to get together and produce a better quality of products which is sure to demand a better price.

At the school at the opening of the Monday afternoon session Miss Okey made an entertaining talk on "Rational Diet." Miss Betz's talk on "Sugars" proved very helpful to all. Tuesday morning the school was given over to Miss Okey who made a splendid talk and gave helpful demonstrations on "Meats On the Farm—Their Preparation and Preservation." Miss Okey gave a demonstration on how to cook tough meats, old chicken and other meats. A general discussion of the subject brought the session to a close.

In the agricultural course Tuesday morning Mr. Bachtell took for his subject, "Soil Moisture." He emphasized the necessity of deep plowing and getting organic matter in the soil. He also took up the matter of sub-soiling and the use of dynamite in breaking up the sub-soil. Tile, drains and clover roots are the best ways of keeping soil in a drained condition.

"Silos and Silage" was Mr. Bailey's topic for the morning, and in his talk he discussed the importance and necessity of the silo in winter and summer. He also discussed filling silos and recommended Old Virginia Blue Ridge corn as the variety to be used. He also urged the use of corn exclusively in the silo.

The final talk Friday afternoon on "The Farm Water Supply" will be made by Virgil Overholt, who will come from Columbus to make the talk.

Rev. Thomas Nuncy, of Wayne, W. Va., is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Ferguson, of Lick Run.

"We Regret Wilson's Action," Says Secretary Zimmerman

Berlin—(Via Sayville Wire.) Feb. 4.—Received in New York, Feb. 6.—We regret this measure taken by President Wilson all the more since it is against all tradition and all international law that we are cut off from all direct communication and regular intercourse with the trans-Atlantic world," declared Secretary for Foreign Affairs Alfred Zimmerman today.

"We also remember," the foreign secretary continued, "that the United States diplomats during the past months and years of the war cared for German interests by proxy with efficiency and great success."

"The text of the president's message received here, has been examined most minutely, in the absence of other official documents."

"Having ourselves no real cause for hostility against the United States, remembering the traditionally friendly feeling that exists between the two countries practically from the first days of the United States, we naturally appreciate the words of rather un-hostile character that are included among others of different character found in that message as transmitted in press dispatches."

"In them President Wilson assures us that he wishes no 'hostile conflict' with Germany and I can add that we appreciate this and the other paragraphs in the message joining in this respect President Wilson's note."

"While to a certain extent we think we can see by what reasons the United States was prompted to arrive at its present attitude, on the other hand we expect that President Wilson, to the same extent, may recognize the reason which prompted us to take our decision."

Secretary Zimmerman's remarks were circulated by the official German press bureau, which preceded them with this picture of conditions in Berlin, February 4:

"Even during the advanced hours of the afternoon no communication that relations with the United States were broken off had yet reached Berlin. Yet the text of President Wilson's message to congress removed in the mind of the general public, as well as the official world, all doubt as to the existence of the earlier private information."

WILSON'S ACTION A SURPRISE TO GERMAN NEWSPAPER EDITORS

BY CARL W. ACKERMAN

Berlin, Feb. 6.—Severance of relations between America and Germany came as a distinct surprise to German newspaper editors—and now with this action accomplished some of them do not believe German-Americans will support President Wilson.

This belief was expressed today by one of Berlin's leading editors.

"I never expected a severance of relations," he declared. "We had hoped that Wilson would realize that Germany is fighting for her existence."

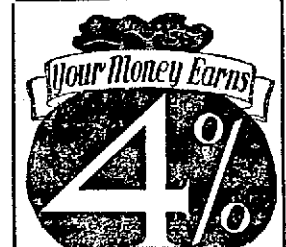

"I do not believe the German-Americans will support President Wilson."

"The war will proceed—and Germany will win."

Germany Actuated By Desperation, Say British

London, Feb. 6.—England's governmental leaders united in speeches at Central Hall today in expressing their belief that Germany latest "frightfulness" was actuated by desperation and knowledge of her impending defeat.

Premier David Lloyd George declared to a vast audience, assembled to further the work of the National Service Plan, that "Germany's treatment of war prisoners and civilians in France and Belgium, coupled with the sinking of merchantmen on sight, was organized, studied savagery of the most dangerous form."

"Every man," the premier declared, "must give his whole energy to the nation. We must build more ships for the purpose of demonstrating that murder on the high seas is futile."

"Civilization must be organized to meet organized barbarism. 'Don't let our patriotism be less than that of the Germans.'"

U-Boat Controversy Started In March 1915

Since March, 1915, when dispatches carried the news that the British liner Falaba, bound from Liverpool to West Africa, had been torpedoed and sunk, off Milford, England, upon which boat L. T. Thresher, an American, was a passenger, and lost his life, the United States has faced many crises with Germany, concerning the submarine warfare.

The first American life to be lost through the submarine warfare, which was inaugurated by Germany to combat with the blockade established by the allies, was Thresher. From March, 1915, until last Saturday, when diplomatic relations were severed with Germany, many notes were exchanged between the United States and Germany, concerning the loss of American lives and the destruction of American liners.

A list of the ships which were victims of the submersible warfare, which were either owned by Americans or in which Americans lost their lives, is:

GULFSLIGHT—American ship, bound from Port Arthur, Texas, to Rouen, France; torpedoed off Scilly Islands, May 1, 1915, without warning. Two men were drowned. Ship damaged. Germany expressed regret and promised to pay damages.

One of the strange coincidences of the affair, is, it was off the Scilly Islands that the first American liner was torpedoed and that it was in the same vicinity where the Steamer Housatonic was torpedoed Saturday, after diplomatic relations had been broken with Germany.

LUSITANIA—English, May 7, 1915, torpedoed off the coast of Old Head of Kinsale without warning; 1,198 lives were lost, among which 124 were Americans. This brought United States and Germany to a verge of war.

NEBRASKA—American, May 25, 1915, torpedoed off Fastnet Islands without warning. Ship damaged. Germany expressed regret and promised to pay damages.

Entries Recorded

Entries were recorded by County Clerk John W. Hall in the cases of the Star Publishing Company against Joseph Distel and L. H. Henderson, suits to require the defendants pay for stock alleged subscribed by them, in which the actions were dismissed. Mark A. Crawford represented the plaintiff.

ENGLISHMAN—English, March 24, 1916, torpedoed near English Isles; one American lost his life. This same day the French Channel Steamer Sussex was torpedoed, which resulted in President Wilson forwarding a note to Germany declaring his intentions to break off diplomatic relations, unless the under sea boat warfare was modified so that unarmed liners would be warned before attacked. Several Americans lost their lives on the Sussex.

MARINA—British, October 30, 1916, torpedoed without warning; six American lives lost. Ship was armed.

This was followed by an attack on the Steamer Chemung, American, and the loss of 17 Americans on the Steamer Russian and the declaration of Germany on January 29, of withdrawal of all restrictions of her sea forces which led to the severance of diplomatic relations.

Several members voiced this view privately after the meeting. It was evident that serious discussion of the Evestone case had convinced the cabinet group that this was not a cause for war.

SITUATION UNCHANGED

Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—A long cabinet session this afternoon, left the government heads with the impression that the German situation "is unchanged."

Several members voiced this view privately after the meeting. It was evident that serious discussion of the Evestone case had convinced the cabinet group that this was not a cause for war.

Solvay Comp'y Buys Land

The Portsmouth Solvay Company purchased about two acres of ground from the city Tuesday at their bid of $5,000.

This land is near the new municipal pumping station and will be utilized by the Portsmouth Solvay Company in the construction of a fine big plant.

Bids were solicited by the city for the ground, this being the only method by which it could be sold, and the solvay company bid $5,000. The bid will be confirmed by the board of control at the next meeting.

Wesley Hall Mission

In the past two weeks we have had some very remarkable conversions among men at the Mission. The meetings have been largely made up of men and boys. At nearly every meeting from one to twenty people raise the hand for prayer. The cold weather, instead of decreasing the attendance at these meetings, has had the opposite effect of bringing in more people.

The chapel room is always warm and light. The music is good. The congregational singing of the old familiar church songs. Get hold of the men; many of them have not heard these songs for many years. Some are the songs they heard when they were children. As one man put it a few nights ago, "That is the song my mother sang the night she died."

These songs cause the men to look back to review life. They put them to thinking. Many times hardened men break out most unexpectedly and join freely in their old favorite songs. At every meeting after song, prayer and testimony is given by the workers, then the last and all-important part of the meeting comes, "the altar call."

This is never forgotten. Sometimes one man comes, sometimes more—many times none. This is real fishing for men. We are continually trying to keep our Mission intensely religious. For this particular phase of Mission work we request the prayers of the praying people of our city.

It was decided at the preachers' meeting yesterday to set apart the prayer meeting hour in all the churches of the city, on Wednesday, February 14th, to pray for Wesley Hall and other missions of our city. We truly hope that on that evening every Christian may be in his place on time, to have his part in this much-needed meeting.

Tow, W. H. Hart, pastor of the Baptist church, will preach at the Mission this evening at 7 p. m. The public is welcome. J. E. DIBBLET.

You Can't Brush Or Wash Out Dandruff
The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone. And three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

Stars At Huntington
John McIntyre and Lelia Hyams, theatrical stars, who are favorites in Portsmouth, will be seen in Huntington tonight in their latest musical success, "The Girl of My Dreams."

Several years ago they appeared at the Grand here in "The Girl of My Dreams" and played a return engagement to big receipts.

GERMAN PRESS SUPPORTS GOVERNMENT'S STAND ON THE U-BOAT WARFARE

(BY CARL W. ACKERMAN)

Berlin, Feb. 6.—American Ambassador Gerard is awaiting word from Washington regarding details the United States government has arranged for departure of German Ambassador Bernstorff before completing his plans for leaving Germany.

Yesterday Gerard held another lengthy conference with Foreign Secretary Zimmermann, at that time formally requesting his passports.

With one exception, the Socialist organ Vorwaerts, the German press today firmly supported the government in its determination to continue the submarine warfare. It was noticeable, however, that every newspaper comment referred to the situation as "President Wilson's break with Germany" and carefully avoided use of the word "America."

Bernhard, in the Vossische Zeitung pointed out editorially today that President Wilson "had changed his mind about armed merchantmen." He referred to a purported statement by Secretary of State Lansing in January declaring that armed merchantmen would be considered as warships and added:

"This decision was changed after the Entente ambassador in Washington rushed about convincing President Wilson he was mistaken. Bernhard paid glowing tribute to Ambassador Bernstorff and in this a number of other newspapers joined.

"The pledge Germany made after the Sussex case has not been broken," declared the Tagblatt, "because that pledge was conditional upon America's success in obtaining a change in England's illegal blockade against Germany."

The Berlin public continued calm today in the face of Gerard's preparations to leave. Extra guards stationed about the American embassy were the only outward indications of anything unusual there—but inside there was a bustle of preparation and packing for departure of the embassy staff.

A resolution was passed authorizing the clerk to issue certificates of indebtedness to the amount of about $6,000 in the anticipation of the collection of street assessments.

The suggestion by the fire committee that two fire chiefs be employed in the place of one, was favorably acted upon by council. Ira Fenner and Ogle Buchanan are the new chiefs. One will work nights and one days, so that one will always be on the job. Their salaries will be $75 per month.

Charles Horr and Ben Harris, part owners of Millbrook addition, asked council to take action at once on the paving of Rhodes avenue and Lakeview avenue in Millbrook addition. Bids will be advertised for as soon as Messrs. Horr and Harris secure the signatures of the property owners on the two streets to waivers on service of notices and claims for damages. Several months ago bids were advertised for, but no bids were received. The estimates for paving the streets have since been increased.

The street committee was instructed to have the sanitary sewer near Stanton avenue school cleaned. Engineer Grover Kinley was instructed to purchase new stop-cocks for the fire-plugs where unknown persons have used all kinds of wrenches on the plugs and damaged them so that the firemen's wrenches will not fit the stop-cocks.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You snappy say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that white freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whitening at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

CANADIANS AT FRONT PLEASED WITH NEWS OF PRESIDENT'S ACTION

With the British Armies at the front, Feb. 6.—If there was anything needed to make Canada's fighting forces here completely comfortable and cheery, it was the news of America's break with Germany.

When the news reached the trenches the Canadians expressed no surprise, but were frankly pleased. In fact they seemed almost as proud of President Wilson's stand, as Americans were.

Americans who went in the trenches today chuckled in anticipation of breaking the news to the Germans opposite them by placards, notes tied to stones, shouts and other favorite taunts of the Tommies. The most unusual exclamation of opinion on the development was that Germany was mad.

The Canadians were already cheery on account of the continued cold weather and a new fall of snow last night which made the country look homelike—but they were made even more cheerful by the news of the break.

U. S. Has 290 Ships Ready For Service

Two hundred and ninety war vessels of all kinds and sizes, ranging from the dreadnaughts carrying 16-inch guns capable of hurling a shell weighing a ton more than ten miles, to the little 500-ton submarines, are in commission in the United States navy.

The Atlantic fleet, which is the greatest in the history of the government, is now mobilized at Guantanamo, the government's naval base on the south coast of Cuba, and can sail immediately for any point.

It has always been contended that in case of war the United States would lack an auxiliary service, which would be provided only through a mercantile marine, but in the present emergency it is felt this embarrassment is not apt to be faced. It is known the government will seize the 106 German ships now interned in the ports of the United States and its possessions, if war comes. These merchant ships are valued at more than $100,000,000.

"THERE IS NO WAY BACK FOR US" SAYS GERMAN SECRETARY OF STATE IN INTERVIEW

Berlin—(Via Sayville Wireless.)—The official news agency today Feb. 5.—Received New York, Feb. 6.—"There is no way back for us; we shall go the way which we have chosen to the end and are convinced that neutrals later on will be thankful to us for this."

CHILE APPARENTLY ENDORSES WILSON

Santiago, Chile, Feb. 6.—Least affected of all South American republics by Germany's policy of unlimited submarine warfare, Chile apparently endorses President Wilson's step in breaking off relations with Berlin.

A cabinet conference today discussed the entire situation, including the United States' request for concerted neutral action. No announcement of any decision was made. The Chilean public approves the stand taken by the United States but the gov-

Bernstorff And Party To Sail In About A Week

Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—Count and Countess Von Bernstorff, their suite, German consular officers and all German servants and clerks, will sail from New York for Germany in about a week, probably via Scandinavia port. The party will number about 200.

It is understood negotiations are under way for Bernstorff and his suite to go over on the Frederick VIII, which may sail February 13.

This information came to the state department today after the matter had been discussed since Saturday with Swiss Minister Ritter, now acting for Germany.

While the department and Dr. Ritter are arranging for a ship in New York, the German embassy is awaiting the arrival of the German consular officers from San Francisco and Seattle. By the time they have arrived, it is expected all sailing arrangements will have been completed, officials said.

The party will probably go from Washington to New York on a special train. It is expected they will completely fill any boat which is likely to be chartered for the trip, as practically none of the larger vessels are available.

The German Embassy is a private residence today. Newspaper men found a courteous reception from attendants, but were politely informed the embassy is now but the private residence of a private citizen.

The latest telephone wires in Portsmouth are those leading to the TIMES WANT AD department.

boats after the crew had left the provisional British collier Evestone. The message said:

"Provisional Collier Evestone sunk by shell fire of German submarine in vicinity Fastnet yesterday (Feb. 4). American negro, able seaman, Richard Wallace of Baltimore, killed during shelling of boats after they had just left the Evestone. Details not yet available."

London, Feb. 6.—Whether America would find a cause for war in the killing of an American sailor aboard the British freighter Evestone by German submarine shell fire was the all-absorbing topic of discussion here today.

England accepts it as a foregone conclusion that America will eventually be a formal belligerent. It looks for a declaration of war momentarily. But in the meantime, regarding the peculiar diplomatic situation created by the fact that America is not yet officially an enemy of Germany and has merely broken relations with her, British officialdom is taking great care in dealing with American Ambassador Page to regard the United States as still being a neutral.

No further details of the sinking of the Evestone were available here today beyond the admiralty announcement.

This related that the Evestone was sunk by shell fire from a German submarine and quoted survivors as declaring four of their number, including Richard Wallace, of Baltimore, were killed by the U-boat guns fired on the small boats in which the crew took refuge after their steamer had gone down. Ambassador Page was obtaining all possible information as to the circumstances of the attack on the Evestone today, preparatory to submitting a formal report to Washington. The American ambassador is in the closest possible touch with the British government officials.

London, Feb. 6.—The American consul at the port where the survivors of the British steamer Evestone were landed, today telegraphed American Ambassador Walter Hines Page a full report of the sinking of that vessel by a German submarine.

Page declined to make the report public but instructed the consul to investigate further and report from the survivors, first whether the Evestone was warned by the U-boat and second whether she offered any resistance, and third whether she attempted to escape.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 6.—Richard Wallace, mentioned in an official statement from London, as a Baltimore seaman, killed when the boats from the British steamer Evestone were shelled by a German submarine, was known to a few persons here. Search today failed to reveal any relatives, but in a sailors' lodging house, Benjamin Bloch and Ducky Holmes claimed acquaintance with the dead man.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Conclusive proof that Germany intends to wage her war of "ruthlessness" on the seas, as evidenced by the Evestone case, increased the tension in Washington today.

The state department's official word on the destruction of the Evestone with the loss of one American negro sailor's life, indicated to officials that Germany has cast caution overboard. The reports said the men were shelled after taking to life boats.

This is contrary to all international law, regardless of whether the men in the life boats are from a naval vessel or otherwise.

The fact that the Evestone was a British naval collier mitigated the sinking of the vessel, but nothing in international rules excuses shelling of life boats. Germany herself made this point in the Baralong case which, while not exactly similar, is parallel. In the Baralong case, Germany charged brutality to German seamen after they had gone overboard.

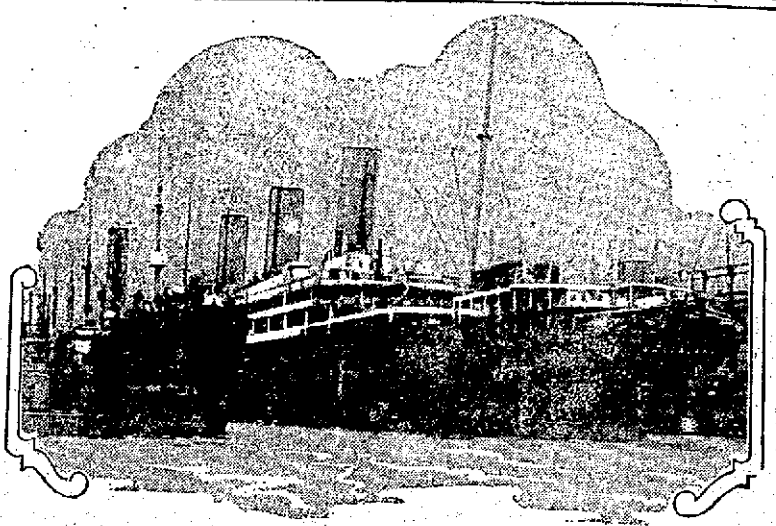

Officials insisted today on waiting for fullest details. They said they must have all facts before they act. They also hinted strongly that it must be Germany that makes a declaration of war—if a declaration of war must come. In the meantime dispatches were immediately prepared requesting appeal by American representatives to rush affidavits containing details from any who may have been saved from the Evestone. These must be in hand at the state department and White House before a final decision is reached.

Every instrumentality of the di-President Wilson, Secretaries Ba-rection of the president, congress and Daniels.

The greatest effort is now being used toward getting all arms of the nation's defense strengthened. It is probable that work on and equipped for their first giant service since the Spanish-American war.

The president this afternoon, is for opposing submarine attack. To meet with his cabinet and can. So completely and quickly is the situation what has been the work proceeding that if the done and what is being planned the United States is called on to toward mobilizing the tremendous strike, it can do so immediately on resources of the country for and forcefully. A policy of almost complete secrecy has been adopted in all departments, and the raising of any sum needed, for the second time in two years.

The senate is expected today to vote a resolution of confidence in the president and the house will follow. The upper body would have done yesterday, except for parliamentary technicality. Under the rigid senate rules the it develop that neutrals are to follow. It is probable a conference of all advisory committees in all part each is to bear in bringing branches of the national defense pressure on Germany to relax its work are submitting reports to war.

With the machine-like precision them will be called to discuss the

What The Doctor Knows

KIDNEYS MUST BE RIGHT TO INSURE HEALTH.

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of the kidneys.

The physician in nearly all cases of serious illness, makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly the other organs cannot readily be brought back to health and strength.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's Disease, which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, causes nearly ten thousand deaths in the United States each year.

It is, therefore, of the greatest importance to pay the attention to the health of these important organs.

An aged French compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is the KIDNEY PILLS, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is sold by every druggist in bottles of two sizes, 50c and $1.00.

When your kidneys require attention get KIDNEY PILLS at once from any pharmacy. It is sold by every druggist in bottles of two sizes, 50c and $1.00.

When you wish first to test the KIDNEY PILLS send ten cents to the KIDNEY PILLS Co., 111 N. Y. St., New York City. When writing be sure and mention the Portsmouth Daily Times.

but the secretary will consider immediately legislation that will facilitate the needs of the department and will prevent interference with this "vastly important" means of communication.

The government had for some time had supervision of the Tucker and Sayville stations and these as well as other stations have been instructed to use the greatest care and judgment in the selection of operators and employees.

The department has taken every precaution to prevent the establishment of activities of "lawless" or "secret stations" that no unauthorized information may be distributed.

Switchmen Vote To Strike

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Switchmen on eighteen roads running into Chicago have voted to strike. No action will be taken, however, until the return to Chicago from Cleveland, of James Murdoch, president of the Trainmen's Brotherhood, who has gone to Cleveland to confer with other brotherhood heads.

When Murdoch returns he will confer with the general manager's committee representing the trainmen. If the brotherhoods and the railroads fail to agree, the United States board of mediation will be appealed to. Both sides today said a strike is not likely.

It was possible the senate might hear Works and then act on the Stone resolution late this afternoon.

Many Aliens Applying For Naturalization Papers

New York, Feb. 6.—Federal and state courts of New York are being worked overtime today cleaning up applications of aliens applying for naturalization papers. More than 500 applications, most of them from Germans, Austrians and Hungarians, were filed yesterday. Nineteen Germans, members of the crews of ships lying in New York harbor, probably will be allowed their freedom today, following immigration examinations at Ellis Island. One of them was stewardess of the liner Vaterland.

It has been learned, according to officials that the number of men left on the ships has dwindled from about 4,500 to 1,200, the others having left without taking immigration examinations.

When the war started about 1,250 of the men were allowed to go ashore under a seaman's act which permits sailors to find employment on other ships. They were unable to work and automatically came under the jurisdiction of immigration officials. This leaves about 1,750 who have left the ships without complying with the law.

Germans Made Series Of Diplomatic Blunders, Claim Allied Diplomats

Washington, Feb. 6.—America's breaking of relations with Germany is the culmination of a series of diplomatic blunders on the part of either the German foreign office or its envoys, allied diplomats declared today.

The first, these allied representatives said, was calm belief that Belgium would not fight.

The second was a similar belief that England would not join France and Russia.

The third was her belief that the United States would continue to merely protest and that President Wilson would not break off relations.

These diplomats said they would not be surprised if Germany makes her fourth diplomatic blunder by believing the United States will not go to actual war if she endangers or destroys American life or property through insistence in carrying out her new U-boat warfare.

The Belgium mistake, it was pointed out, was based on reports to the foreign office from the German envoy at Brussels.

These reports all were, in effect, entente diplomats said, "Belgium won't fight. Belgium will let Germany's armies use her as a gate-way to France."

The British attitude, it was declared, as forecast to Berlin by the Kaiser's London envoy, was absolutely wrong. The German government heads believed the forecast, in view of England's Irish, labor and suffragette troubles.

"And now the mistake regarding America comes," said this diplomat. "The only difference is, I think that the German foreign office, perhaps did not accept the reported advice of Count von Bernstorff at its face value."

"I believe Bernstorff at least warned that the United States might do what it did; only his home government probably thought Bernstorff did not have the proper perspective, and reached its own conclusions."

"I believe Germany is about to err in judgment once more."

New York, Feb. 6.—One American ship, the New York, is among the ships speeding today through the submarine danger zone.

The White Star liners Baltic and Adriatic also are dangerously near the forbidden territory. The Baltic sailed more than a week ago and should be near the end of her journey. The British admiralty has refused to announce the arrival of vessels, so she may reach port unknown to this side. The Adriatic left Saturday.

The Cunard liner Carmania sailed for Liverpool, Sunday. The French liner Rochambeau left Sunday for Bordeaux. The French line freighter La Droite is well on her way, having left New York last Thursday. There are many smaller ships of various nationalities on their way, either to the United States or European ports. With few exceptions they carry absolute contraband. The New York is the only one of the large ships not so loaded.

Berlin Press Comment

Berlin—(Via Sayville Wireless, Feb. 6.)—Berlin newspaper comment on the situation with America, included, according to the official press bureau statement today, the following expressions:

"The Socialist newspaper Vorwarts states that after February 1st hopes were small of maintaining friendly relations with America. The newspaper compares again the situation in Germany and the United States, where 'they know nothing of the pleasures of life in the trenches and where they can go to the next store and buy bread, butter, bacon, cheese, milk and eggs.'"

As to the possible attitude of other neutrals, the Vorwarts says: "Neutrals, according to the principles of common sense, would have an obligation not to dictate to one party the laws of warfare, but to make those parties conclude a strong, just peace." "The newspaper concludes: 'The action of starvation is directed against the whole German nation, and thus the whole German nation, with its old people and women and children stands in the status of all wars.'"

"At the termination of the war nobody will be able to say that the German soldiers or German workmen or German Socialists did not do their fullest duty toward the commonwealth to the end."

"The Pageblatt says: 'The German people will accept the American decision with that earnest strength of character and ethics that are a self-evident necessity in the face of the facts. We never minimized the United States, but those who would minimize or under-estimate the strength of defense in the German nation would be struck with still worse blindness.'"

The literary test to which the president objected, bars all aliens over 16 years of age who cannot read at least thirty words of a language to be selected by the alien.

The following if sent for by aliens already admitted to the United States are exempt from the literacy test:

Father or grandfather over 45 years of age, wife, mother, grandmother, unmarried or widowed daughter.

Those who because of religious persecutions have been unable to secure the required education, are also exempt. Anarchists or persons opposed to organized government and contract laborers are excluded under the new bill.

Further protests from the Japanese government are to be expected opponents of the bill held.

Gates To Ships Are Barred

Hoboken, N. J., Feb. 6.—For the first time since the diplomatic break with Germany was announced at Washington, gates leading to the piers where German vessels are lying here, were barred today. No one, not even newspaper men, was allowed to pass. Guards were redoubled.

Gustav Friederichs, assistant superintendent of the North German-Lloyd line, said there is absolutely no truth in the report that ships lying here have been damaged.

"I personally inspected ships of the North German-Lloyd line and I want to state as positively as possible that the vessels are now ready for service at any time," he said.

The armor plate committee lost no time in making a personal inspection of the six sites Ironton has offered the committee on which to build the proposed $11,000,000 government armor plate plant. The sites include one at South Point, Coal Grove, Hanging Rock, Sheridan, Hecla and one in the city limits of Ironton, which is located in the new Lombard addition in the East End of that city.

After the committee had been shown every advantage of these sites the members were entertained at luncheon at 12 o'clock at the home of Earl Stewart of the Chamber of Commerce, who resides on South Sixth street, Ironton. In Half An Hour No Constipation, Headache, Biliousness

Tollo Water Gives Quick and Gentle Relief—A Wineglassful in a Glass of Plain Water Is Enough

How long you are going to remain a victim of constipation, and its effects, such as sick headache, pimply, blotchy skin, easily tired, foul breath, biliousness and indigestion is a matter of how soon you start taking Tollo Water.

People who remain indoors don't get enough exercise to keep the bowels regular, must take something to relieve them of their accumulated waste. Avoid harsh drugs that gripe and sicken. Nature has provided relief for just such cases. Take a third of a tumblerful of Tollo Water in a glass of plain water before breakfast, it gives remarkably quick and gentle, yet thorough relief. Its occasional use will keep the bowels regular, the liver active and the stomach in perfect condition.

This wonderful water is found and bottled only at Dawson Springs, Kentucky, but druggists sell it for 15 cents a bottle. You should get a bottle and start taking it today.

Mother Praises Remedy That Relieved Her Baby

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Is a Dependable Family Laxative.

Nearly all the sickness incident to a baby's life is due to constipation, or inaction of the bowels. At the first indication of irregularity in this important function, relief should be afforded promptly. A mild laxative should be administered to gently carry off the congested waste and leave the stomach and bowels free to perform their allotted tasks.

Of the various remedies recommended to relieve constipation, the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, as prescribed by Dr. W. B. Caldwell and sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is the most effective. It contains no opiate or narcotic drug, is pleasant to the taste, mild and gentle in action, and quickly brings the desired relief in an easy, natural manner.

Mrs. C. J. Douglas, Mason, Ill., writes that she cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as a dependable family laxative. Little Mary Eva had been badly constipated until they tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which brought the first natural relief the child had in two weeks.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores everywhere and costs only fifty cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to ask for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See the facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. are never failing. It is best to plant these in the fall, but they may be planted in the early spring under right conditions. The best soil for these bulbs is sandy loam, old well-rotted manure being used as a fertilizer. Bone meal is a good substitute if this is not obtainable, and should be used in proportion of a pound to a square yard of surface. If the soil is heavy with clay, sand should be added to lighten it. These bulbs will not bloom all summer. However, you can plant other flowers that will be ready to take their place when they stop blooming.

Dear Miss Wise—Please print in the paper when the big fire in Chicago occurred. It was over 40 years ago, but I don't remember the exact date. Also tell me how much it burned.

OLD TIMER.

The fire started on Sunday night, Oct. 8, 1871. 3,000 acres of almost solid blocks were devastated. 26,000 buildings were burned. $2,000,000 worth of property destroyed, and 100,000 persons rendered homeless. Contributions to the amount of more than $7,500,000 were sent from nearly all parts of the world.

Dear Dolly—What name was substituted for flash-light by the Ever Ready Co. Who won the prize?

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please answer the following questions: What kind of exercise should be taken to make a person grow taller? What kind of government has China? When will there be a state fair held at Chicago, Ill.? Please give me a recipe for making potato salad.

AGNES.

Stretching exercises are supposed to make one taller, but not enough so you can notice it. High-heeled shoes and high-crowned hats will help some. China is a Republic. President Li Yuan-hung is head of the Chinese government. State fairs are usually held at the capital of the state, and Springfield is the capital of Illinois.

Buena Vista School Destroyed By Fire

Fire, supposed to have started from a defective flue, destroyed the four-room, two-story frame school building at Buena Vista early Tuesday morning.

It was discovered about two o'clock and in an hour the frame structure was in ashes.

When first discovered the fire was burning briskly in the rear part of the second floor where the flue was located. Janitor Edward Spencer put out the fire in the stove on the first floor about five o'clock yesterday afternoon.

There had not been any fire in the stove on the second floor for some time. The front doors of the school were broken in and the entire populace was aroused, as the school bell and the church bell started to ring at early hour. A bucket brigade was quickly formed and while a number of men worked carrying out seats and desks from the school, the fire-fighters kept careful watch on adjoining property.

The two rooms down stairs contained about 30 desks just installed last year. The two teachers' desks, and about forty of the desks in the front room down stairs were carried to places of safety. The second floor was used as an auditorium and contained a number of chairs. The chairs and desks in the rear room down stairs were destroyed. Most of the books in the 25 volume library, installed last year, were saved. The desks saved were in the room of Principal George Nans. Miss Sadie Carter was the other teacher in the school. The school has an enrollment of about 80. The building was about fifty years old, many of Buena Vista's present citizens having attended school in the historical building. One year ago a bond issue of $1,000 was voted for the school and $500 of the amount had been spent in repairs. The loss is about $3,000 with

Bierley & Yeley Have Improved Equipment

Bierley & Yeley, dyers and cleaners, whose works are located at Sixth and Offshore streets, believe that Portsmouth is entitled to one of the best equipped dye houses in the state and have acted accordingly. They have secured the services of Joseph Eiselsberg, of Philadelphia, to take complete charge of the mechanical department of their big plant, which has but lately been thoroughly equipped, and the plant is now in a position to dye any color and match any shade. Therefore, it has been impossible to have anything dyed outside of black, but Bierley & Yeley are now equipped to dye goods any conceivable color, they having secured a big consignment of German dyes, despite the high cost of same. Mr. Eiselsberg is a native of Germany and learned his trade in that country. For six years he held the responsible position of foreman of Krauss Bros., Loewy Co., of Chicago, one of the biggest dye houses in the world. In order to meet every requirement Bierley & Yeley have thoroughly equipped their plant by the addition of the very latest improved machinery. They have just installed a drying tumble of the latest model, new cleaning machine, new extractor and two big copper kettles for dyeing. All this on top of their splendid equipment gives them one of the best equipped wool shops in the country. In addition to all this they have installed a wool blanket machine, one of the latest on the market. This machine not only thoroughly cleans blankets, but restores the nap and makes them just like new. The big plant is a hive of industry these days and is ready to care for all demands of patrons.

STOCK BARN BLOWN DOWN

Randen, Feb. 6.—Shortly after noon Sunday, when the blizzard which swept over this section was raging in all its fury, a large stock barn on the Sarah Abbott farm, north of town, collapsed.

By a singular coincidence, only one of five head of stock that was buried in the wrecked building was injured, a valuable horse being badly hurt, but may recover.

The other animals, three horses and a cow, were rescued from the debris several hours later, escaping without a scratch.

The loss is estimated at $500.

SPRINGFIELD RESIDENT RECALLS DAYS LONG GONE BY—WANTS OTHERS TO WRITE

Springfield, O., Feb. 6, Editor Times—I saw an article in the Times of January 29 that interested me. The item stated that the first Presbyterian church would be one hundred years old and the thought occurred to me that it would be interesting to know how many people now living in Portsmouth remember the old Portsmouth church that used to be down on Second street, and its exact location. I attended Sunday school and church service there when Da-

Navigation on the Ohio river has been entirely suspended owing to the river being full of the heaviest ice of the winter. Local River Observer P. B. MAY HELP GAS PRESSURE

Changes made in the main plant of the United Fuel Gas company, Charleston, W. Va., Monday, probably will stop the trouble which Portsmouth has had in the past week in getting an adequate supply of natural gas, John McMillan, superintendent of The Portsmouth Gas company stated Tuesday morning.

Tuesday morning the gas storage for this city was above normal and the pressure entering the city was above normal, Mr. McMillan said. It is hoped that the normal pressure can be maintained for domestic use during the remainder of the present cold weather.

The gas pressure became weak Monday afternoon late and did not resume normal until about 8:30 o'clock last night.

In many parts of the city consumers had very little gas, and in some instances families had to gather around a small gas stove in bath rooms to keep warm.

The Times was besieged with calls last night as to what was the matter with the gas, which persists in becoming low around the superheater, which probably is due to the heavy demand made for it at that hour.

I. O. O. F. Has Oyster Supper

Members of Scioto and Portsmouth Lodges I. O. O. F. enjoyed an oyster supper Monday night. It followed the regular meeting of Scioto Lodge at which the degree of truth was conferred upon three candidates, J. B. Frostick, W. H. Hart and Evan Hughes.

THE BEST SELLER

Is Old Black Joe Cough Syrup. Wherever introduced, Old Black Joe Cough Syrup soon becomes the best selling remedy for coughs, colds, bronchitis and irritated throats. The reason is plain—it is absolutely safe for children as well as for grown folks and it does the work quickly and surely. There is not a single drop of opiates, chloroform or narcotic drugs in it. It loosens the phlegm, opens the air passages, soothes irritation and kills the cold germs. A big bottle costs only 25c at any store in city or country.

Room Too Cold, K. of P. Banquet Is Postponed

Owing to the severe cold and shortage of gas, the Knight Rank initiation and banquet of Magnolia Lodge Knights of Pythias, scheduled for Monday evening, was postponed one week. Next Monday evening two or three candidates will take the Knight rank, after which the lodge will banquet. Notwithstanding the weather, there was a fine turn-out of the members. Several new applications for membership were received and several on waiting list were balloted upon. Among those elected to membership are Capt. George S. Carroll and Leo Turner. Monday week between seven and ten candidates will begin the trip to knighthood by taking the Page rank. Under the watchful eye of Master of Work George T. Swabey and Captain Arthur Flowers, the degree team, dressed in overcoats and mufflers, went through an hour's drill. Magnolia will be ready when the date for the Eight District Knighthood rank contest at Chillicothe is announced.

Local D. A. R. Waits For "Call To Arms"

"We are awaiting word from our state regent, Mrs. Austin C. Brant, of Canton," said Mrs. Cornelia B. Treuthart, 117 Seventh street, regent of the Joseph Spencer chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Portsmouth, when she was asked what the local chapter would do in response to the call issued yesterday to all D. A. R.'s in the country. The plan is to list all women of the country together with their accomplishments that they may be quickly called upon for service to their country. The call was issued by Mrs. William Cummings Storey, president general of the Daughters of the Revolution, who urges establishment of districts for hospitals and making of hospital supplies. "I do not believe we will need to give such service to our country," said Mrs. Treuthart.

HOLDING TO ITS OWN COURSE

Much misconception might be avoided, the duty of some would appear clearer, if, in the present critical situation, the fact was kept clearly in mind, that should this nation go to war with Germany, it will be solely on her own account and not as an ally of England, France, or any other country. In fairness and friendship America has borne herself strictly neutral as between the belligerents. Her differences with Germany are personal and direct and are in no wise affected by her relations with that country's enemies.

Germany has given provocation by announcement of a submarine policy that she, in all supposable solemnity, assured the United States she would not persist in when the Sussex sinking of last May was the subject of diplomatic exchanges and discussion. As President Wilson so well puts it, this country can not stand for the intolerable assumption that because Germany holds her foes are pursuing tactics not recognized by the civilized code of war, this nation, which has neither taken part therein, nor given approval thereto, shall sit inactive and see her ships ruthlessly sunk and her citizens drowned, because Germany thinks such a procedure is necessary to her triumph. This nation's own are her own and she must protect them; her rights are her rights and she must maintain them. At least she must attempt so to do to the extent of her ability and resources.

Only the utterly rash, or the altogether selfish would have this nation go to war, without war being unavoidable. The universal wish, as is likewise the almost equally universal hope is that conflict with Germany will be avoided. Then let none assume there is a wide and deep rooted antipathy to Germany that demands warfare upon her. There is none such. With remarkable unanimity and admirable good temper the American people have refrained from becoming either rabid or strong partisans of either side to the European conflict. Peace has been sufficient and will continue sufficient to them so long as their dignity and rights as a nation are respected and unviolated.

They will stand by the president and the government, be it for weal or woe.

SPORT AND ADVERTISING

It is rather singular that every newspaper that has expressed any view on the matter at all, deprecates the proposed baseball strike and its sympathies are against the players.

Singular because newspapers give more advertising to baseball than to anyone other thing and get less, in fact, practically nothing out of it. Take The Times as an illustration, it has devoted thousands of columns, veritably to exploiting the business and it has no recollection that it was ever paid a dollar for advertising, received no compensation whatever therefor, except such as might be assumed to come indirectly through printing that a class of people wanted to read and so maintaining place as a newspaper. Why this should be is not clear. Theatres, boxing and various amusement and sporting undertakings seek publicity and patronage through paid advertising. Baseball is the exception. It ought not to be. Now when it is threatening to fall in to disruption in big leagues and is rapidly vanishing professionally from the smaller cities would seem a good time for papers to resolve that if it survives and comes back it shall pay for publicity on the same basis of other sports, conducted for profit.

We'll be bound if you can't always count on Ohio being to the front. At the inauguration of Missouri's government only five plug hats were worn and one of these adorned the dome of the president protom of the senate, who married a Portsmouth girl, and was himself born in Ohio, for all we know to the contrary.

We have been having some interviews with delegations of influential citizens from the townships that convince us the lot of the commissioners is not altogether a delightful one, even if they have, as some citizens believe, nothing to do but look after the roads. From what we learn from tales told us they might have difficulty in locating the roads, which have a way of disappearing after every little rain, quite as effectually and exasperatingly as does that some water in the reservoir. Say, is Scioto county bewitched with all this disappearing business going on? Here she was shy again on gas, Monday.

Somebody has locked the door and thrown away the key and Mr. Bernstorff doesn't know how he is to get out.

We've heard of several budding captains and majors, but the high private in the rear ranks appears to be mighty modest about coming forward. But never mind he'll answer "here" should his country call.

Now don't get foolish and ascribe every explosion and mishap that occurs to secret emissaries of Germany.

If Germany continues to follow the established laws of nations and the high seas as she did in the case of the sinking of the Lusitania then will President Wilson's "call" of her be victory of peace more glorious and certainly more happy than any of arms.

An exchange says it does not know whether there is truth or not in Tom Lawson's revelations. Then why call them revelations?

THE SONG OF THE MUD ROAD

The following by H. C. Andrews, and copyrighted by the William Penn Good Roads Association, is a good one:

"I am the unimproved highway.
"My name is Mud.
"The foot that pattered in primeval slime gave me birth.
"Unchanged while the ages passed, I have endured. Time has but served to increase my infinite variety. Earth born, and without a soul, yet have I lived. From the beginning have I been man's enemy.
"A dust-colored python am I, stretching my length across the hills, awaiting my time to crush endeavor.
"I have snared caravans that left bleaching bones in land now desert.
"Empires have fallen because of me.
"I have turned vicarines into routs; I have trapped mighty leaders and have crushed enemies.
"I am without faith; and those who trust me I deceive.
"Today I am fair to look upon; tomorrow a steaming bog.
"I add difficulty to distance.
"With isolation do I conspire to unjoint the endeavors of man. I tug at the wheels of the gravitator, that bread may be dear. I hamper those who would feed the race.
"I am an enemy of church and school. I mire the healer on his rounds and delay the coming that little ones may die.
"I am a disrupter of home. I speed the firstborn to the cities when I am fair to see; and when he would return I face him with my forbidding depths. I minister to bitterness and lay a tax on all the world. There is none who lives who does not pay me tribute.
"When men plowed with a crooked stick I was there. When the ancients covered me with stones I slipped away to other lands. I am the oldest line that lives today. Men count me cheap. I know the price they pay who count me so.
"I am the unimproved highway.
"My name is Mud."

The circuit judge of Mingo county was shot from ambush, but fortunately not killed, or mortally wounded. Politics, Mingo county politics, the rottenest in West Virginia, or any other state, are thought to lie back of the foul deed. Some people think the law can correct everything, then let's have a statute doing away with politics.

Hope springs eternal in the human breast and so is there one swelling in this noble one that this cold snap is really and truly the last of the season.

The Little Deeds

Not mighty deeds make up the sum
Of happiness below,
But little acts of kindness
Which any child may show.

A merry sound to cheer the babe
And tell a friend is near;
A word of ready sympathy
To dry the childish tear.

A class of water kindly brought;
An offered easy chair,
The turning of the window blind,
That all may feel the air.

An early flower, unasked, bestowed;
A light and cautious tread;
A voice to gentlest whisper hushed,
To spare the aching head.

Oh, deeds like these, though little things,
Yet purest love disclose,
As fragrant perfumes on the air
Reveals the hidden rose.

Some Dish, This

Favorite foods that mother used to make were the topic of conversation at the boarding-house table. After numerous interchanges came a lull. Then a callow youth, whom bashfulness usually kept silent broke it with this bomb shell.
"D-d-did any of you ever eat sauer-kraut with whipped cream on it?"

Naturally

It was his first night on guard and, of course, John Smith was on his guard against officers and such like questioning him on his duties.

As it happened, he was at a station guarding a magazine of powder that had arrived during the day. Suddenly the orderly came around, and, after the usual formalities, he commenced to question Smith.

Officer—"What would you do if the magazine blew up?"
John—"Go up with the report, sir.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

A Little

A little work, a little play
To keep us going—and
So, good-day!
A little warmth, a little light
Of love's bestowing—and
So, good-night!
A little fun, to match the sorrow
Of each day's growing—and
So, good-morrow!
A little trust that when we die
We reap our sowing—and
So, good-bye!

Germany's Answer To President's Action May Be Declaration Of War

AMERICAN SEAMAN KILLED BY GERMAN U-BOAT GUN

War Decree Is Inevitable Belief Of Many Officials, Supported By Dispatches And Bernstorff Statements

Washington, Feb. 6.—Germany's answer to President Wilson's notice of a diplomatic break is expected within 24 hours. It may be a declaration of war.

Belief is rapidly crystallizing among officials that this final step is inevitable and it would cause no surprise if Germany took it now. This belief was strengthened by receipt of Berlin press dispatches quoting Foreign Minister Zimmermann as saying "there is no step backward" contemplated following President Wilson's action.

Also it was recalled today that last spring when the Sussex sinking threatened a diplomatic break, Ambassador Von Bernstorff said such a break would result in an immediate declaration of war by Germany.

At the same time President Wilson told members of the foreign relations committee that he had been "reliably informed actual war would follow a break."

Von Bernstorff recently reiterated his former statement.

Possible action of this kind by Germany took precedence in the discussion of officials today, even over the London admiralty statement reporting the killing of an American citizen by a German submarine gun. According to the admiralty report, Richard Wallace, of Baltimore, was killed by U-boat shell fire while leaving the British steamer Evestone in a small boat.

The report immediately made the international situation more acute, pending investigation.

Should Germany make the war decision some officials believe she will base her declaration on President Wilson's active efforts to align neutral governments in a break.

Some officials, however, in spite of the German declarations to the contrary believe she may modify her U-boat campaign before a greater crash results.

While awaiting the step which may mean war, the president is determined that this government shall make no move not fully and literally justified by the laws of nations and humanity; that nothing shall be done for mere expediency that might merit a reproach from any nation, even Germany.

Meanwhile the government moved rapidly on inaugurating, completing and perfecting details of war preparation.

Every instrumentality at the disposal of the president, congress and the departments was being used toward getting all arms of the nation's defense strengthened and equipped for their first gigantic service since the Spanish-American war.

The president this afternoon, is to meet with his cabinet and discuss the situation—what has been done and what is being planned toward mobilizing the financial resources of the country for threatened war.

Congress was ready to authorize the raising of any sum needed.

The senate is expected today to vote a resolution of confidence in the president, and the house will follow. The upper body would have done it yesterday, except for parliamentary technicality. Under the rigid senate rules the final endorsement resolution is up today.

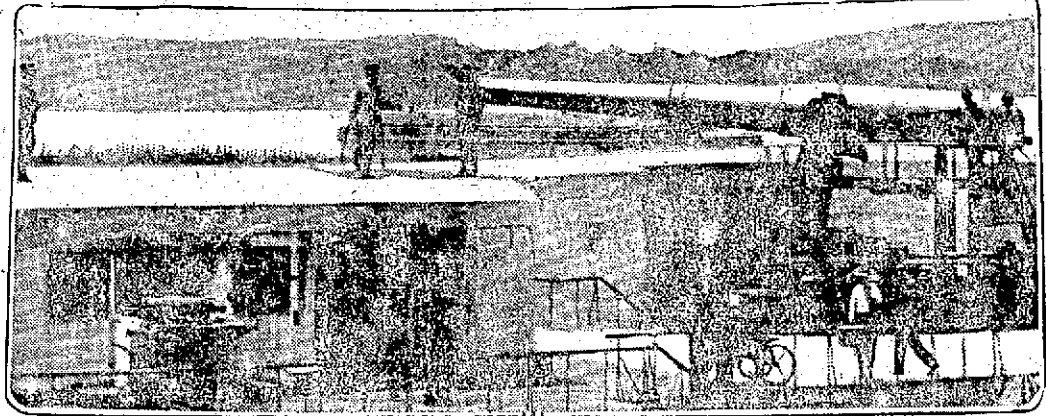

With the machine-like precision of advisory committees in all branches of the national defense work are submitting reports to President Wilson, Secretaries Baker and Daniels.

The greatest effort is now being entered upon the navy.

It is probable that work on some of the giant vessels will be stepped in order to hasten completion of submarines and vessels for opposing submarine attack.

So completely and quickly is the work proceeding that if the United States is called on to

BRAZIL TO PROTEST NEW U-BOAT POLICY

Rio De Janeiro, Feb. 6.—The Brazilian government announced today that a protest will be made against Germany's unrestricted submarine warfare, following an hour's cabinet meeting called by President Braz. It was expressly stated, however, that every effort will be made to avoid actual conflict with Germany. The minister of marine issued an order suspending all Brazil navigation.

SPAIN DRAFTS REPLY TO DISPATCH TO BERLIN: PRESS ENDORSES WILSON

London, Feb. 6.—Spain will apparently be the first of the neutral nations to join America in severing relations with Germany. Madrid's answer to Berlin will be forwarded today. Premier Romanones and his cabinet worked until a late hour last night drafting a note. The exact contents are not known—but authoritative dispatches from Madrid today declared it would be either a firm protest against Germany's unlimited submarine warfare, or else a definite notice that Spain is about to take America's course in the matter.

Representing the clerical party, the whole Spanish press is a unit in approval of a firm course by Spain at whatever cost. Enthusiastic approval is voiced of the course taken by the United States. "Humanity should be grateful to the United States," declared El Pais, in an editorial typical of the general attitude of the press. American Ambassador Willard at Madrid has been in the closest touch with Premier Romanones during the last few days. Madrid dispatches today did not indicate whether Spain has prepared formally to answer President Wilson's invitation to all neutrals to join in America. Presumably such action awaits Germany's receipt of the note which Spain will send today.

VOTE ON PRESIDENT SUFFRAGE BILL IS EXPECTED THURSDAY

Columbus, O., Feb. 6.—The senate committee on federal relations was ready today to report out with a recommendation for passage the Reynolds house bill granting Ohio women presidential suffrage.

Of the entire membership of the committee only two votes can be counted against the bill. Senator Berry is chairman.

Friends of the Reynolds bill were victorious last night in a contest over the question of what committee the Reynolds bill should be referred to. Senator Holden, leader in the senate of the anti-suffrage forces, asked that the bill go to the committee on privileges and elections while Senator Berry suggested the federal relations. On a viva voce vote the suffragists won easily.

There was talk today of bringing the Reynolds bill to a vote in the senate Thursday afternoon. Administration leaders won't object because they're anxious to get the entire suffrage question out of the way.

That the "antis" are prepared to make a stiff fight was certain. The tip has gone out that the result in the senate will be much closer than it was in the house and that the "antis" have the "pros" worried.

BALTIMORE MAN KILLED WHILE LEAVING SHIP

BULLETIN

Washington, Feb. 6.—Confirmation of the killing of Richard Wallace, negro seaman, reached the state department today in a cablegram from Consul Frost at Queenstown.

The message showed Wallace was killed in the shelling of the boats after the crew had left the provisional British collier Evestone. The message said:

"Provisional Collier Evestone sunk by shell fire of German submarine in vicinity Fastnet yesterday (Feb. 4). American negro, able seaman, Richard Wallace of Baltimore, killed during shelling of boats after they had just left the Evestone. Details not yet available."

London, Feb. 6.—Whether America would find a cause for war in the killing of an American sailor aboard the British freighter Evestone by German submarine shell fire was the all-absorbing topic of discussion here today.

England accepts it as a foregone conclusion that America will eventually be a formal belligerent. It looks for a declaration of war momentarily. But in the meantime, regarding the peculiar diplomatic situation created by the fact that America is not yet officially an enemy of Germany and has merely broken relations with her, British officialdom is taking great care in dealing with American Ambassador Page to regard the United States as still being a neutral.

No further details of the sinking of the Evestone were available here today beyond the admiralty announcement.

This related that the Evestone was sunk by shell fire from a German submarine and quoted survivors as declaring four of their number, including Richard Wallace, of Baltimore, were killed by the U-boat guns fired on the small boats in which the crew took refuge after their steamer had gone down. Ambassador Page was obtaining all possible information as to the circumstances of the attack on the Evestone today, preparatory to submitting a formal report to Washington. The American ambassador is in the closest possible touch with the British government officials.

London, Feb. 6.—The American consul at the port where the survivors of the British steamer Evestone were landed, today telegraphed American Ambassador Walter Hines Page a full report of the sinking of that vessel by a German submarine.

Page declined to make the report public but instructed the consul to investigate further and report from the survivors, first whether the Evestone was warned by the U-boat and second whether she offered any resistance, and third whether she attempted to escape.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 5.—Richard Wallace, a Baltimore man, was known to a few persons here. Search today failed to reveal any relatives, but in a sailors' lodging house, Benjamin Bloch and Ducky Holmes claimed acquaintance with the dead man.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Conclusive proof that Germany intends to wage her war of "ruthlessness" on the seas, as evidenced by the Evestone case, increased the tension in Washington today.

The state department's official word on the destruction of the Evestone with the loss of one American sailor's life, indicated to officials that Germany has cast caution overboard. The reports said the men were shelled after taking to life boats.

This is contrary to all international law, regardless of whether the men in the life boats are from a naval vessel or otherwise.

The fact that the Evestone was a British naval collier mitigated the sinking of the vessel, but nothing in international rules excuses shelling of life boats. Germany herself made this point in the Bantley case which, while not exactly similar, is parallel. In the Bantley case, Germany charged brutality to German seamen after they had gone overboard. Officials insisted today on waiting for fullest details. They said they must have all facts before they act. They also hinted strongly that it must be Germany that makes a declaration of war—if a declaration of war must come. In the meantime dispatches were immediately prepared requesting all speed by American representatives to rush affidavits containing details from any who may have been saved from the Evestone. These must be in hand at the state department and White House before a final decision is reached.

Santa Fe, N. M., Feb. 6.—Governor De Baca will express his approval by signing today the measure passed yesterday by both houses of the state legislature providing for the submission to a vote of the people of a constitutional amendment for statewide prohibition. HOLDING TO ITS OWN COURSE

Much misconception might be avoided, the duty of some would appear clearer, if, in the present critical situation, the fact was kept clearly in mind, that should this nation go to war with Germany it will be solely on her own account and not as an ally of England, France, or any other country. In fairness and friendship America has borne herself strictly neutral as between the belligerents. Her differences with Germany are personal and direct and are in no wise affected by her relations with that country's enemies.

Germany has given provocation by announcement of a submarine policy that she, in all supposable solemnity, assured the United States she would not persist in when the Sussex sinking of last May was the subject of diplomatic exchanges and discussion. As President Wilson so well puts it, this country can not stand for the intolerable assumption that because Germany holds her foes are pursuing tactics not recognized by the civilized code of war, this nation, which has neither taken part therein, nor given approval thereto, shall sit inactive and see her ships ruthlessly sunk and her citizens drowned, because Germany thinks such a procedure is necessary to her triumph. This nation's own are her own and she must protect them; her rights are her rights and she must maintain them. At least she must attempt so to do to the extent of her ability and resources.

Only the utterly rash, or the altogether selfish would have this nation go to war, without war being unavoidable. The universal wish, as is likewise the almost equally universal hope is that conflict with Germany will be avoided. Then let none assume there is a wide and deep rooted antipathy to Germany that demands warfare upon her. There is none such. With remarkable unanimity and admirable good temper the American people have refrained from becoming either rabid or strong partisans of either side to the European conflict. Peace has been sufficient and will continue sufficient to them so long as their dignity and rights as a nation are respected and unviolated.

They will stand by the president and the government, be it for weal or woe.

SPORT AND ADVERTISING

It is rather singular that every newspaper that has expressed any view on the matter at all, deprecates the proposed baseball strike and its sympathies are against the players.

Singular because newspapers give more advertising to baseball than to anyone other thing and get less, in fact, practically nothing out of it. Take The Times as an illustration, it has devoted thousands of columns, veritably to exploiting the business and it has no recollection that it was ever paid a dollar for advertising, received no compensation whatever therefor, except such as might be assumed to come indirectly through printing that a class of people wanted to read and so maintaining place as a newspaper. Why this should be is not clear. Theatres, boxing and various amusement and sporting undertakings seek publicity and patronage through paid advertising. Baseball is the exception. It ought not to be. Now when it is threatening to fall in to disruption in big leagues and is rapidly vanishing professionally from the smaller cities would seem a good time for papers to resolve that if it survives and comes back it shall pay for publicity on the same basis of other sports, conducted for profit.

We'll be bound if you can't always count on Ohio being to the front. At the inauguration of Missouri's government only five plumed hats were worn and one of these adorned the dome of the president protege of the senate, who married a Portsmouth girl, and was himself born in Ohio, for all we know to the contrary.

We have been having some interviews with delegations of influential citizens from the townships that convince us the lot of the commissioners is not altogether a delightful one, even if they have, as some citizens believe, nothing to do but look after the roads. From what we learn from tales told us they might have difficulty in locating the roads, which have a way of disappearing after every little rain, quite as effectively and exasperatingly as does that some water in the reservoir. Say, is Scioto county bewitched with all this disappearing business going on? Here she was shy again on gas, Monday.

Somebody has locked the door and thrown away the key and Mr. Bernstorff doesn't know how he is to get out.

We've heard of several budding captains and majors, but the high private in the rear ranks appears to be mighty modest about coming forward. But never mind he'll answer "here" should his country call.

Now don't get foolish and ascribe every explosion and mishap that occurs to secret emissaries of Germany.

If Germany continues to follow the established laws of nations and the high seas as she did in the case of the sinking of the Housatonic then will President Wilson's "call" of her be victory of peace more glorious and certainly more happy than any of arms.

An exchange says it does not know whether there is truth or not in Tom Lawson's revelations. Then why call them revelations?

THE SONG OF THE MUD ROAD

The following by U. C. Andrews, and copyrighted by the William Penn Good Roads Association, is a good one:

"I am the unimproved highway.
"My name is Mud.
"The foot that pattered in primeval slime gave me birth.
"Unchanged while the ages passed, I have endured. Time has but served to increase my infinite variety. Earth, barn, and without a soul, yet have I lived. From the beginning have I been man's enemy.
"A dust-colored python am I, stretching my length across the hills, awaiting my time to crush endeavor.
"I have snared caravans that left bleaching bones in land now desert.
"Empires have fallen because of me.
"I have turned victories into routs; I have trapped mighty leaders and have crushed enemies.
"I am without faith; and those who trust me I deceive.
"Today I am fair to look upon; tomorrow a steaming bog.
"I add difficulty to distance.
"With isolation do I conspire to unjoin the endeavors of man.
"I tug at the wheels of the graincart, that bread may be dear. I hamper those who would feed the race.
"I am an enemy of church and school. I mire the healer on his rounds and delay the coming that little ones may die.
"I am a disrupter of home. I speed the firstborn to the cities when I am fair to see; and when he would return I face him with my forbidding depths. I minister to bitterness and lay a tax on all the world. There is none who lives who does not pay me tribute.
"When men plowed with a crooked stick I was there. When the ancients covered me with stones I slipped away to other lands. I am the oldest line that lives today. Men count me cheap. I know the price they pay who count me so.
"I am the unimproved highway.
"My name is Mud."

The circuit judge of Mingo county was shot from ambush, but fortunately not killed, or mortally wounded. Politics, Mingo county politics, the rottenest in West Virginia, or any other state, are thought to lie back of the foul deed. Some people think the law can correct everything, then let's have a statute doing away with politics.

Hope springs eternal in the human breast and so is there one swelling in this noble one that this cold snap is really and truly the last of the season.

American manufacturers have almost a billion dollars invested in subsidiary Canadian plants. That shows how much they believe in protection for American labor.

The Little Deeds

Not mighty deeds make up the sun
Of happiness below.
But little acts of kindness
Which any child may show.

A merry sound to cheer the babe
And tell a friend is near;
A word of ready sympathy
To dry the childish tear.

A glass of water kindly brought;
An offered easy chair,
The turning of the window blind,
That all may feel the air.

An early flower, unasked, bestowed,
A light and cautious tread;
A voice to gentlest whisper
hushed,
To spare the aching head.

Oh, deeds like these, though little things,
Yet purest love disclose,
As fragrant perfumes on the air
Reveals the hidden rose.

Fire Destroys Buena Vista School; Other Village Property Is Menaced

Fire, supposed to have started from a defective flue, destroyed the four-room, two-story frame school building at Buena Vista early Tuesday morning. It was discovered about two o'clock and in an hour the frame structure was in ashes. When first discovered the fire was burning briskly in the rear part of the second floor where the flue was located. Janitor Edward Spencer put out the fire in the stove on the first floor about five o'clock yesterday afternoon. There had not been any fire in the stove on the second floor for some time. The front floors of the school were broken in and the entire populace was aroused, as the school bell and the church bell started to ring at early hour. A bucket brigade was quickly formed and while a number of men worked carrying out seats and desks from the school, the firefighters kept careful watch on adjoining property. The two rooms down stairs contained about 80 desks just installed last year. The two teachers' desks, and about forty of the desks in the front room down stairs were carried to places of safety. The second floor was used as an auditorium and contained a number of chairs. The chairs and desks in the rear room down stairs were destroyed. Most of the books in the 25 volume library, installed last year, were saved. The desks saved were in the room of Principal George Naas. Miss Sadie Carter was the other teacher in the school. The school has an enrollment of about 80. The building was about fifty years old, many of Buena Vista's present citizens having attended school in the historical building. One year ago a bond issue of $1,000 was voted for the school and $500 of the amount had been spent in repairs. The loss is about $3,000 with only $1,500 insurance, $1,200 being carried on the building and $300 on the fixtures. Dr. James Frizzell's home across the street from the school has a tin roof which is all that saved it from burning. The Hareha Hotel south of the school was scorched. The Methodist church, north of the school has a shingle roof, but was saved by the bucket brigade. The Hazlebeck company will insure you. 819 Italia. adv

GERMAN PRESS SUPPORTS GOVERNMENT'S STAND ON THE U-BOAT WARFARE

(BY CARL W. ACKERMAN)
Berlin, Feb. 6.—American Ambassador Gerard is awaiting word from Washington regarding details the United States government has arranged for departure of German Ambassador Bernstorff before completing his plans for leaving Germany. Yesterday Gerard held another lengthy conference with Foreign Secretary Zimmermann, at that time formally requesting his passports. With one exception, the Socialist organ Vorwaerts, the German press today firmly supported the government in its determination to continue the submarine warfare. It was noticeable, however, that every newspaper comment referred to the situation as "President Wilson's break with Germany" and carefully avoided use of the word "America." Bernhard, in the Vossische Zeitung pointed out editorially today that President Wilson "had changed his mind about armed merchantmen." He referred to a purported statement by Secretary of State Lansing in January declaring that armed merchantmen would be considered as warships and added: "This decision was changed after the Entente ambassador in Washington rushed about convincing President Wilson he was mistaken." Bernhard paid glowing tribute to Ambassador Bernstorff and in this a number of other newspapers joined. "The pledge Germany made after the Sussex case has not been broken," declared the Tageblatt, "because that pledge was conditional upon America's success in obtaining a chance in England's illegal blockade against Germany." The Berlin public continued calm today in the face of Gerard's preparations to leave. Extra guards stationed about the American embassy were the only outward indications of anything unusual there—but inside there was a bustle of preparation and packing for departure of the embassy staff. Buell was sent to Athens several months ago. He is survived by a wife and one child.

What's This, Pressure Too Strong, Zowie! Off Goes Gas

About 80 homes in Long Meadow addition, back of Seabrook, were without gas for two hours Tuesday morning. The gas went off at two o'clock and was turned on again shortly after four. The trouble was in the reducing station in Tanageria addition, north of Seabrook, the addition between Seabrook and Long Meadow. An oil seal blew out when the gas pressure became too strong. It is used in holding down the pressure to a certain point so that the pressure will not cause trouble in consumers' pipes. The United Fuel Gas Company had a force of men at work soon after the "blow out" occurred.

CHANGES MADE IN PLANT MAY HELP GAS PRESSURE

Changes made in the main plant of the United Fuel Gas company, Charleston, W. Va., Monday, probably will stop the trouble which Portsmouth has had in the past week in getting an adequate supply of natural gas, John McMillan, superintendent of The Portsmouth Gas company stated Tuesday morning. Tuesday morning the gas storage for this city was above normal and the pressure entering the city was above normal, Mr. McMillan said. It is hoped that the normal pressure can be maintained for domestic use during the remainder of the present cold weather. The gas pressure became weak Monday afternoon late and did not resume normal until about 8:30 o'clock last night. In many parts of the city consumers had very little gas, and in some instances families had to gather around a small gas store in bath rooms to keep warm. The Times was besieged with calls last night as to what was the matter with the gas, which persists in becoming low around the supper hour, which probably is due to the heavy demand made for it at that hour.
